Booktopia

Terms

Thanks for your interest in listing your book on the Booktopia website .

Please Note: Booktopia does not currently sell second-hand books.

1. We do not pay for shipping, you will pay for the shipping to us.
2. Please supply an image of the book cover to load on to the site. If you have internal images of the pages of the book as well then that is great because it can really help increase sales, then we can load them like this one here:

<http://www.booktopia.com.au/prod9780980449501.html>
3. Please supply the correct title, author name and ISBN. Booktopia uses the Onix file standard to keep its website up to date with new products, pricing and availability information.
4. Please supply the correct recommended retail price of the book.
5. Please supply a good description of the book to include on the book's web page. If you have any reviews of the book then we will include them as well, or even better any author video interviews or digital content would be much appreciated.
6. Please let us know what categories you might want your book to appear in, including sub-categories as well. Although we do all of the categorisation ourselves, it helps if you have an idea of what you want.

Thank you for your interest in listing on our site.

About Booktopia:

Booktopia only operates online. We have more online visitors to an Australian bookstore than any other bookstore websites. We started in February 2004 and now sell more than any other book website including Dymocks and Angus & Robertson in Australia. We pay GST and currently employ 35 Australians, unlike Amazon.com. Our business background is in building technology for the internet and were one of Australia's leading Internet Marketing companies until Booktopia completely took over the business.

If these conditions do not meet with your requirements then we totally understand and wish you all the best in promoting your book.
